Data from old Family Bible, Perth Amboy, N.J.
The house 285 High Street, built by Wm., Jr. with money provided by his mother, Margaret, who joined Presb. Ch., Perth Amboy in 1816. Land was purchased 1811. E.M.B.

E.M.B. states that it is not certain that this William Jr. is the William4 son of Samuel3 mentioned in will of Mary Ford 1774, but it may be assumed from various facts. Samuel3 inherited shoemaker utensils from his father William2 who was also a shoemaker.

Oswald Foord, unrelated to other N.J.Fords, d. 1727, Middlesex Co.N.J. intestate. First Rec. of Oswald or Oswell Foord is in connection with division of proceeds in a trader's suit in 1677. "Oswell fford", being among servants brought from Jamaica or England.

Records of Brookhaven, L.I. 1693, mentions an Oswald Foord, with baptismal name of Oswell frequently appearing on early records of country may be presumed to be the same man as mentioned above. He d. in Middlesex Co., N.J. name spelled in records "Oswald" and "Oswele."

In Brookhaven, Oswald F. rented the minister's house in 1693 & 1694, Prob. married with a family. Witnessed a deed there 8/7/1694; Trustee of Town1695 & 1696; Collector for Brookhaven, 1694; Church committee 1696. On July31, 1696 the town of New Towne, granted 7 acres of land to him; 1698 name appears on petition to Council of N.Y.

His name and that of three sons appears in Census of Staten Is. 1706 (Ref. Stillwell's Hist. & Gen. Misc., N.J., Vol.I, p.155)

Also an unknown William Ford mentioned as witness to will of Staten Is. resident 1703.
